

Relax, unwind, enjoy

There aren't many genuinely quiet streets right in the heart of London. But they do exist – and we're on one of them. Location is everything. We are centrally located beside Trafalgar Square and in fact, you might never guess that Piccadilly Circus and Leicester Square are within a few minutes' walk.

YOU'RE WELCOME

Any number of London hotels will tell you they're at the heart of the capital. The Royal Trafalgar has a stronger claim than most.

The City on one side, Whitehall on the other, history everywhere you look. The National Gallery is literally next door, as is the square that shares our name.

The hotel has recently completed a full refurbishment of four Junior Suites, 11 Executive King rooms and 12 Deluxe rooms.

They have been completely modernised with a vibrant colour palette bringing the total number of rooms to 108. All rooms are equipped with state-of-the-art technology including large LCD TV and WI-FI access.

Our Squares Restaurant and Gravity Bar have also been refurbished and guests can enjoy a drink or a bite to eat in relaxing surroundings away from the hustle and bustle of the nearby streets.

Whether you're here on business or a weekend break, shopping, theatres, sightseeing and culture are all around you. This is the perfect base from which to explore. Piccadilly and Leicester Square underground stations are four minutes away.
